About Us

DUSD is a decentralized deflationary asset and stable token with an aim to make the worlds' payment system easier.

DUSD is the native token of the DUSD Ecosystem. It will be used as the primary payment medium of our upcoming mobile application & payment gateway.

Ecosystem

Decentralized network

DUSD is currently based on Binance Smart Chain. But we are currently working of the DUSD Network ecosystem. For example, like the Meta Musk network. Where all users can store and exchange DUSD tokens and other cryptocurrencies.

It is currently in development and will be released in December 2021.

All our products, such as mobile apps, payment gateway, etc. will run on a decentralized chain. The best part about our decentralized chain is that its gas fees will be minimal compared to every blockchain network available on the market.

DUSD Payment Gateway

DUSD payment gateway will be our decentralized payment gateway for website owners, freelancers. Using our payment gateway, they can easily enable crypto payments on their website.

Not only DUSD, but our payment gateway will also support all other well-known blockchain networks, which means any person can payment Bitcoin, Ethereum or any other supported crypto on our gateway.

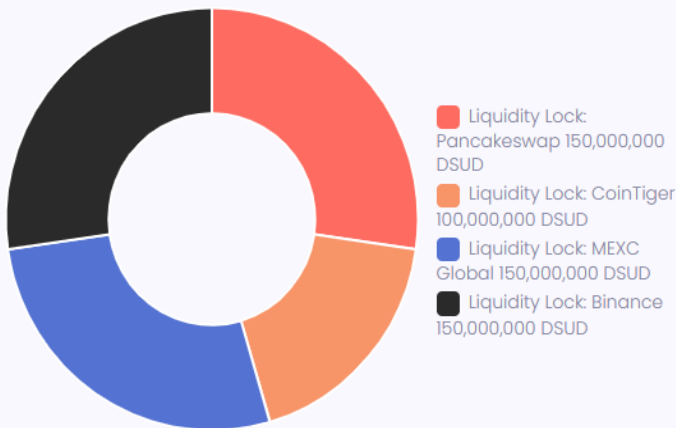

Why Binance Smart Chain?

ERC-20 projects are unable to conduct any microtransaction payments on Ethereum due to high Ethereum gas fees. This makes it impossible to use the Ethereum network for one of its main applications. So we deployed DUSD on The Binance Smart Chain to improve Defi users. This ensures that transactions, staking, and NFTS trading are all carried out at the lowest possible cost while keeping the maximum possible yields.

Frequently asked Questions

When will the DUSD token be listed on exchanges?

The listing of the DUSD token is planned for October 30, 12:00 AM, but it may be earlier if the pre-sale of tokens ends. If there are any changes, we will announce in the telegram group and in our social networks.

Where will the primary token listing be added?

The primary liquidity of the token will be added in our own exchange and the LP will be blocked. This is done in order to cause more trust in our exchange. Listing will be on DUST Exchange.

How much will the DUSD token price be upon listing?

The price of the DUST token after the listing will cost 0.3 cents, but this is not constant, the price may change up to one dollar and may even fall. So you need to be careful, all information will be announced in the telegram group and in social networks.

Why should we trust this project and participate in the airdrop?

We are developing games that are also decentralized. Plus, we will have a decentralized wallet and other developments that will directly affect the liquidity and stability of the value of one DUSD.

When will the mobile app appear?

In December 2021, our secure mobile application will appear, with which you can exchange, store and transfer DUSD tokens and other cryptocurrencies to any corner of the world with minimal fees.

Where does your token plan to add stages of liquidity so that token holders can sell their token at $ 0.3 for 1DUSD?

If on October 30, 2021, we manage to sell all 30% of the pre-sale tokens, the starting price of the first stage of liquidity will be $ 0.3 per 1 DUSD. If we fail to sell all 30% of the pre-sale tokens before October 30, 2021, then the first stage of liquidity will be determined by the interest rates of the pre-sale tokens sold, and the starting price will not be $ 0.3. When our team launches a new gambling site on November 15, 2021, we plan to immediately launch an aggressive marketing plan. The essence of the plan is that through a special telegram bot, people will receive the SHIBA INU token for certain actions, for example: for subscribing to the community of the playground. Thus, we will attract more than 1 million users to the new platform. Starting December 1, 2021, every 3 days a liquidity stage will be added to our DUSD token. This process will continue until the token price becomes more than $ 0.3, for example, $ 12 for one DUSD.

Staking and Liquidity Pools

Staking

You can stake DUSD/BNB and a range of other crypto assets at our pool. This puts your assets to work while also providing you with an annual APR estimate.

Staking DUSD tokens on our platform will provide you with an annual return (APR) of approximately 250 percent.

Liquidity Pools

By adding their tokens to liquidity pools, or "LPs," users can contribute liquidity to DUSD pools.

When users add their tokens to a liquidity pool, they will receive LP tokens.

For example, if you combine DUSD and BNB in a liquidity pool, you will receive DUSD-BNB tokens. The number of tokens you receive represents your share of the DUSD-BNB liquidity pool.

Additionally, you can withdraw your liquidity at any time to redeem your funds. Provision of liquidity is not without risk, as you may suffer a temporary loss. "In other words, the difference between storing tokens in an AMM and in a wallet is impermanent loss."

However, it is not all bad news for liquidity providers, as you will be compensated with trading fees. When someone trades DUSD, they pay a 0.2 percent commission, 0.33 percent of which goes toward the swap pair's liquidity pool.
